

It is not the government's job to ensure that what it put out over the PUBLIC airwaves indecent. It is up to parents to turn off the radio/tv if they don't want their children watching questionable material. I will be calling my state's representatives to see how they voted on your recent increases of fines. If they voted for it they will no longer have my vote. Read the Constitution, there is no place for your ludicrous laws and regulations.